++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloud and fog gradually lifting, but persisting along some coasts.

Today:
Extensive low cloud and fog patches through the morning. These lifting from some parts through the day, with the odd brighter spell possible. Dull conditions persisting for many, however, especially along the coast. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tonight:
Low cloud returning overnight, along with mist and fog patches. A chance of frost, especially where any clearer spells prevail. Staying dry with light winds. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Wednesday:
Another grey start, with low cloud and fog only gradually lifting through the day. Dry at first, before outbreaks of rain spread north through the afternoon, heavy at times. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Cloudy Thursday with outbreaks of rain. These clearing south to colder and clearer conditions later. Dry, with sunny spells Friday and Saturday, but feeling rather cold with overnight frost.
